

Mr. Blasingame was a lovely lady; also her husband,
 Dr. Blasingame. For many years I mended her stockings.

DROWNED.—We regret the duty of having to chronicle the death of Mr. Gus. Bayol, which occurred on last Saturday, at Selma, Ala., under the following circumstances:

Mr. Bayol, we understand, was bathing in the Alabama river in company with other gentlemen, and while in the water, very suddenly disappeared. We have no farther particulars of this unfortunate occurrence.

Mr. Bayol has been for quite a number of years a citizen of this place, was a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman, and much beloved by all who knew him. He leaves, if we mistake not, four little children, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

*This was Pa Bayol's father. Mama's grand father.

A Home Wedding.

At the home of Mrs. Hardy on Franklin street, last evening at 8:30 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Maggie Holloway to Mr. Loveless Godwin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. B. McLeod, pastor of the Alabama Street Methodist church in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

The bride is a well known young woman who has a large circle of friends. For the past three years she has been connected with the telephone exchange and is well and favorably known. The groom is also well known and has many friends who will join with those of the bride in extending their hearty congratulations.

Maggie was Papa's Cousin & very close. She & Mama worked together at the telephone office operators.
